

ULTIMATE DECK CONTRIBUTORS

Designed to demonstrate outdoor living at its best, the Ultimate Deck—designed by Sunset's own Peter O. Whiteley—incorporates zones for living, cooking, dining, and relaxing. The main section is built with TimberTech (made from wood and recycled plastic).

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

GLIDEHOUSE CONTRIBUTORS

The Glidehouse is a modern, architect-designed prefabricated home. In the San Francisco Bay Area, where real estate costs are notoriously high, it's unheard of to find a 1,344 square-foot two-bedroom, two-bath architect-designed home that can be built affordably. Yet this contemporary, eco-savvy, modern house—designed by Sausalito, California architect Michelle Kaufmann—is just that. Kaufmann has rethought and reinvented the modular house along modern lines.
